Obituary

Donald Williams, always known as Pookie, was born June 2nd, 1947 to the late Jesse and Annette Williams. He was born with Cerebral Palsy but overcame many challenges with his positive attitude and extraordinary memory. He had a very strong love of music. He especially loved Memphis music and musicians- some of his favorites being Rufus and Carla Thomas. He loved and encouraged his nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his brother Michael Williams and two nephews Adrian Holliday and Reginald Williams Jr. He is survived by his two sisters: Yvonne Holliday and Alisa Williams; his brother Reginald Williams Sr; his sister-in-law Linda Faye Williams; his Aunt Dorothy Fields; his uncle Elder Alvin Williams; four nieces: Maleka McCray, Trevon Holliday, Veronica Williams and Jamil Askew; three nephews: Torri Holliday, Torian Williams, Roman Jones; and a host of great nieces and nephews.

Good-bye Pookie. Your memory and your music will play on in our hearts.
